

Year Six Homework Terms Five and Six

Between the start of Term Five and the SATs in May, Year Six homework will focus on revising for the tests and helping the children to be as well prepared as possible. The children will then have a well-deserved break from homework for the last two weeks of the term and we will return to using a homework grid when we come back after half term.